

The Garden Club of Kent

Nomination Form for the Paul and Leah Houser Award

Established in 1999 to honor the memory of Paul and Leah Houser of Kent, the Houser Award promotes community beautification.

Any individual, business, or organization that makes exceptional contributions toward the beautification of communities in Portage County (with emphasis on Kent) is eligible for nomination.

Recognition for a single major project or for longer-term productive efforts at beautification is appropriate.

At the President's Banquet in January each year, the Club awards a certificate of appreciation and a unique gift.

The public is welcome to submit this nomination form to
